SECTION II:

Chapter Management and Programming

The Role of the Chapter Adviser

- ❖ Being the guide, spirit, and face of AΣN for Chapter leaders and the wider campus
- ❖ Ensuring a quality membership experience for each student member – future connection to the society depends on the student member experience
- ❖ Being responsible for the AΣN image on campus
- ❖ Communicating the society's ideals to each new generation of students
- ❖ Serving as the historical continuity of the Chapter given annual turnover
- ❖ Collaborate with the Chapter Coordinator to ensure a high-level induction ceremony and membership experience at the university

Chapter Advisers and Coordinators:

- ◆ Establish a noteworthy presence on campus to attract strong candidates. Membership in AΣN is the most prestigious honor a Jesuit institution can award, and all qualified students should be aware of their eligibility.
- ◆ Provide instruction and inspiration for the local Chapter and guide the student members in managing the local Chapter.
- ◆ Because Chapter officers change every year, the Chapter Adviser will need to be sensitive to the leadership potential of each group of officers and compensate for occasional lapses.
- ◆ Facilitate all interactions with the Central Office.
- ◆ Direct the students in the screening and selection of new members.
- ◆ Submit induction forms for new inductees to the Central Office. Specific deadlines are necessary to ensure that the annual induction of new students can be achieved successfully. Please see this handbook's Section III for details.
- ◆ Oversee the planning of the induction ceremony. The annual ceremony is important in establishing the prestige of AΣN. The event needs not be elaborate nor beyond the means of the student or institution, but it should be well planned and executed as to be noted as an exceptional experience in the academic lives of students and for the audience present.
- ◆ Encourage AΣN alumni participation in Chapter activities.
- ◆ Complete annual Chapter Adviser Report and Upcoming Leadership Form by the end of the academic year.
- ◆ Encourage presidents to participate on the presidents' conference calls.

Chapter Operations

It is Alpha Sigma Nu's policy to allow the local Chapters and Chapter Advisers to establish their own projects and manage their operations as local circumstances dictate. Since conditions vary greatly from one campus to another, the Central Office does not dictate actual operations. Here are guidelines to help conduct Chapter operations.

1. Bylaws

Develop and update your own Chapter Bylaws. These documents can help to clarify officers' duties, time and frequency of meetings, financial arrangements, election of officers, etc. This will encourage stability and continuity for the Chapter.

2. Officers

The number of officers and their duties should be determined by the local Chapter. We recommend a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer as minimum. Please be sure to send the Central Office the names of your new officers each year as soon as they are elected.

3. Meetings

Each Chapter will determine the occasions and times of their meetings. The following are possibilities:

- Liturgy for officers and membership
- Informal social with a guest speaker
- Networking event active members and local AΣN alumni
- Chapter Officer meeting at the beginning and/or end of the school year with Chapter Adviser to establish work assignments and committees
- Dinner or event with the Jesuit community

4. Records

The Chapter Adviser should preserve the Chapter's records. These records include an accurate list of all members, meeting minutes, and financial records.

The Adviser ensures that the new officers receive their materials at the start of each new term. Only the Chapter Adviser can provide the stability and continuity needed for accurate record keeping and effective Chapter management.

5. Annual Reports

The AΣN Bylaws require that each Chapter submit annual reports on the activities of their Chapter. The Central Office will provide reporting forms (print or online). Chapter Advisers are asked to complete the Chapter Adviser Report and Upcoming Leadership Form and ensure the Chapter President completes the Chapter of the Year application in a timely manner to:

- ◆ Assess Chapter's activities for the year
- ◆ Collect the Chapter news for newsletter and website articles
- ◆ Share ideas for programs and best practices
- ◆ Determine the Chapter of the year

6. Chapter of the Year

Chapters are required to submit a Chapter of the Year application (online application found on AΣN website) by the April deadline. This application is the responsibility of the Chapter President. The application takes the place of a formal end-of-year student chapter report. Chapter Advisers should encourage Presidents to submit the application in a timely manner.

Criteria:

- ◆ Service projects – Number, Quality/Content, Attendance
- ◆ Events - with Jesuits, educational, etc. – Number, Quality/Content, Attendance
- ◆ AΣN Day Programming – Number of events, Quality/Content, Attendance
- ◆ Meetings – Number, Attendance, Content
- ◆ Induction ceremony - AΣN and Jesuit content, Speakers, inductees
- ◆ Chapter improvement – doing more than last year – growing expectations/traditions of AΣN
- ◆ Chapter leadership attendance on calls

7. Selection and Induction of New Members

Each Chapter determines the most efficient process for selecting new members, in accordance with the society's general bylaws. Please review AΣN bylaws §3.3 for the society's guidelines. It is the Chapter Adviser's responsibility to ensure the application and selection processes take place according to Bylaws and induction timeline.

Chapters determine their own application process (a sample application is provided in this handbook) and selection process. Chapters must, however, report the new inductee information to the Central Office in a uniform manner, using the forms provided and adhering to the timeline. Induction materials must be received in the Central Office no later than six (6) weeks prior to the date of induction.

8. Induction of University Leaders

The Chapter Adviser, College/University president, Chief Mission and Identity Officer, and the Provost/Chief Academic Officer of your institution are invited to be members of Alpha Sigma Nu. If they are not already members at the time of their appointment, please induct them at the first ceremony after their appointments at no cost to the Chapter. Include their names with your order for pendants/pins and certificates. Prompt notification of such appointments is appreciated.

Chapter Programming

Expectations

- The AΣN Board of Directors asks that each Chapter hold at least two programs per year beyond induction.
- The Chapter of the Year application outlines expectations for an active Chapter. Use the application as a guideline for Chapter programming.
- The student leadership of the Chapter should plan and execute Chapter programming with Chapter Adviser guidance and encouragement as well as the support of the AΣN Board Chapter committee co-chairs and the Central Office staff.

Haig Fund

Alpha Sigma Nu has received an extraordinary $75,000 gift through Rev. Frank Haig, S.J., of Loyola University Maryland, from the estate of his brother, the Honorable Alexander Haig, former United States Secretary of State and Supreme Allied Commander -Europe. Father Haig, with full support of the Board, has designated this gift as a fund for student Chapter programs promoting Alpha Sigma Nu's mission.

The Alpha Sigma Nu Board will award grants of up to $500 per chapter per year to support programs that promote the Alpha Sigma Nu values of Scholarship, Loyalty, and Service. As the selection committee evaluates applications to the Fund, those programs that enhance the profile of Alpha Sigma Nu on campus will be given special consideration.

The Haig Fund application and budget are included in the Appendix. The selection committee will determine the grantees and inform you of their decision on a rolling basis.

AΣN Alumni Clubs

Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Clubs encourage lifelong commitment to the AΣN values of scholarship, loyalty, and service, the ideals of Jesuit education, and Ignatian spirituality. Clubs participate in service projects, present speaker events, develop programs that connect faith with life, and provide a venue for career and social networking. Each Club determines its own activities and agenda, with the AΣN values of scholarship, loyalty, and service acting as the focus.

Alumni Clubs work with Chapters to:

- ◆ Collaborate on service projects, speaker events, and other programming
- ◆ Serve as AΣN ambassadors at local induction ceremonies
- ◆ Provide career and social contacts for graduating AΣN members

Alumni Clubs and Student Chapters are encouraged to collaborate on service projects, speaker events, mentoring, and career/social networking. Alumni Clubs would like regular contact with student Chapters where possible.

The Role of the Chapter Adviser in Alumni Clubs

Some Chapter Advisers have been instrumental in local Club formation. Others serve as an informal liaison between the Club and the Jesuit institution by assisting in meeting room reservation, informing the institution's administration of the Club, and acting as a resource for alumni. The Central Office encourages each Chapter Adviser to establish a working relationship with local AΣN alumni.

Scheduling the Induction Ceremony

The Bylaws do not prescribe a time or season for induction ceremonies, so the decision rests with the local Chapter and its traditions. Many Chapters induct new members in the spring, but some are changing to fall or early winter, as this allows juniors the opportunity to become involved and active while on campus.

Recruitment of New Members

- ♦ Induct the full 5% of juniors, 5% of seniors, and 5% of graduate and professional students
- ♦ Newly appointed presidents, chief academic officers, mission officers, and Chapter Advisers should be inducted at the first induction ceremony after the appointment

Students

Article III of the Bylaws details the qualifications for membership. The Central Office does not dictate one specific method for selecting qualified candidates for membership. Below are two methods for consideration:

1. Selection by student members: A list of academically qualified students should be obtained from the institution’s registrar. The Chapter officers or appointed member committee evaluate(s) eligible students based on academic achievement, loyalty to the Jesuit ideals, and service activities. The officers create and present a list of inductee candidates to the Chapter Adviser for approval.

2. Selection by dean: After receiving a list of the qualified students from the registrar, deans at some institutions may know their students well enough to nominate outstanding candidates without further consultation. However, we suggest the Chapter Adviser and the Chapter officers check the qualifications of each candidate. It is the role of the Chapter Adviser to consult with recommending deans on the service and loyalty requirements.

Presidential Nomination of Students

The Bylaws allow your institution president to nominate up to three (3) additional student inductees who fulfill the requirements of Alpha Sigma Nu. Presidential nominees should meet all membership requirements of Scholarship, Loyalty, and Service.

Honorary Membership

A Chapter may select individuals who have distinguished themselves in scholarship, loyalty and service to be awarded an honorary membership into the Society.

- ◆ Each Chapter may induct five honorary members each year. All nominations shall be approved by the President of the institution.
- ◆ Some suggestions:
 - Jesuits who have not yet been inducted
 - Leaders of local Jesuit projects (Cristo Rey High Schools, Nativity schools, etc.)
 - Well-respected faculty
 - Teacher of the Year Award winners
- Each Chapter is responsible for the induction fee for each honorary member. Fees are waived for the institution presidents, Provost/chief academic officers, mission officers, and Chapter Advisers. Please report any changes to this leadership promptly to the Central Office.

Please list all honors you have received:

Please list all activities in which you have participated as a student and ALL organizations to which you have belonged. Include committee appointments and elected offices on campus or in the community. Please indicate current activity. Use a separate sheet if necessary.

Specific notes regarding the ceremony:

Invitees

In addition to the new inductees and their families, it is always appropriate to invite your Chapter's current members--that is, those students inducted the previous year. Members of the Board of Directors living nearby should be invited to represent the Society. If there is a local Alumni Club, its president may welcome the new inductees to the Alpha Sigma Nu community. The Central Office database can be utilized to invite other local alumni members. Contact Sarah Craine at sarah.craine@marquette.edu for contact information of alumni in your area.

Honorary Membership

Chapters are urged to consider as candidates for honorary membership men and women who represent the tenets of scholarship, loyalty, and service. These may include members of the Jesuit community, the faculty and administration, persons working in local or national Jesuit projects, and other individuals who have distinguished themselves in their community. Please be sure to check to see if an honorary candidate is already a member by consulting the online Member Directory or calling the Central Office.

The President, Chief Academic Officer, and Chief Mission Officer of the college/university, and the Chapter's Chapter Adviser shall become members at the first induction following their appointment if they are not already members.

Induction Program Covers

- ◆ Alpha Sigma Nu purpose and mission
- ◆ The Greek words and their translation
- ◆ Eligibility information
- ◆ Brief history
- ◆ List of all Chapters
- ◆ The Alpha Sigma Nu Pledge

The Central Office updates the induction program covers annually. By using them, you can be assured you are sharing the most accurate and up to date information about Alpha Sigma Nu. If you choose not to use them, please be sure to include the items listed above and to update the text you use for creating the program.

Public Announcement of Your New AΣN Members

Public announcement of your induction helps promote the prestige of Alpha Sigma Nu on every campus. This may require the cooperation of your public relations department and other staff members. Here are a few suggestions to consider:

- ◆ Personal letter to inductee from the Chapter president, Chapter Adviser, or institution president
- ◆ Announcement and/or listing at honors convocation
- ◆ Sharing list of inductees to campus via University Marketing Communications and Relations, when appropriate
- ◆ Announced on Chapter and/or institution's weekly email news and website

General Instructions

The objective is to make the ceremony as impressive as possible for the inductees and guests. This ceremony may be the only formal contact some members will have with Alpha Sigma Nu. Chapter officers are urged to retain the essentials but are free to add elements that will enhance the ceremony. The Alpha Sigma Nu bylaws require that all inductees recite the Pledge during the Induction Ceremony.

It is desirable that each candidate be identified as clearly as possible. This may be accomplished by announcing each name during the ceremony and by publication of the names of those inducted in the Induction Program.

The President of the college/university should take an active part in the ceremony. Often, the date of the ceremony is set according to the President's availability, which requires setting the date far in advance.

Variety and interest are added to the ceremony when a number of active members (student, alumni, board, and honorary) participate.

Responsibilities

All of the officers are responsible for the induction. The Induction Ceremony is called to order by the President of the Chapter.

Invitations

The Chapter Adviser and Chapter officers shall decide whether the ceremony will be open to the institution's community or if it will be by invitation only. Faculty members, deans, department heads, and other administrative officers should be reminded to wear Alpha Sigma Nu pins if they are members.

Protocol

Members, especially officers, should wear their pins/pendants. Chapters are urged to display the official Alpha Sigma Nu banner at the ceremony and at any social functions following the induction. Provision for music at the entrance and exit or a suitable musical interlude might be made. The institution's song and/or an appropriate anthem might be sung.

Seating

The inductees should be arranged in a central place. Chapter officers are to have prominent places. Honorary inductees and the student inductees should be seated where they can be seen and where they can move conveniently about and to the dais area. The faculty should be seated near the candidates.

Tenets

The explanation of the three tenets is the essential message of the Induction and shall be described by the Chapter officers.

Script for the Ritual of Induction

Induction Prayer

This induction prayer may be used to open the Induction Ritual ceremony.

Gracious and loving God,

As we gather to honor the achievements of these members of Alpha Sigma Nu

And those who will be inducted this day,

We pause to celebrate the many ways you have blessed their lives

And to give you thanks and praise.

For their dedication to scholarship;

For their intelligence and ideals that lead them to deepen their commitment to the pursuit of knowledge.

May they come to see that the wisdom they gain today will be realized in what your great plan holds for their lives tomorrow.

We give you thanks and praise

For their dedication to loyalty;

*For the challenges they encounter in seeking truth and justice,
So as to live as men and women of honor and integrity in their daily lives.
May the vision of St. Ignatius be their guide in deepening their encounters with God and with others.*

*We give you thanks and praise
For their dedication to service;
For the work of their hands and the generosity of their hearts that reach out to see the sufferings of others and seek ways to serve.
May the ideal of generous service be their guiding principle as they work for justice in our world.*

*Lord,
May this induction ceremony today be a life-long reminder of the ideals of Jesuit education that have been so firmly rooted in the mission of the Society of Jesus and [name of school].
And may your grace continue to fill their lives that they may always be challenged to be leaders who are examples of excellence and integrity, generous in their compassion, and committed to serving others for your greater glory.*

Amen.

Remarks of the President

Alpha Sigma Nu, the honor society of Jesuit institutions of higher education, is a dynamic fellowship of lifetime leaders dedicated to Ignatian vision and values in the highest tradition of the 450-year Jesuit mission in Catholic higher education. An invitation to be inducted into Alpha Sigma Nu is one of the very highest honors a Jesuit institution confers upon a student. As a unique honor society, Alpha Sigma Nu carries a profound mission:

Alpha Sigma Nu recognizes those students who distinguish themselves in scholarship, loyalty and service. The only honor society permitted to bear the name Jesuit, Alpha Sigma Nu encourages its members to a lifetime pursuit of intellectual development, deepening Ignatian spirituality, service to others, and a commitment to the core principles of Jesuit education.

Founded in 1915, Alpha Sigma Nu is an international organization with chapters at all 27 Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States, and five outside of the U.S. The name Alpha Sigma Nu signifies the Greek words Adelphotes Scholastikon Nikephoron (ah-del-foh-tes scow-last- i- kown Nee-kay- for-own), meaning “the company of honor students.” The key of the society bears the three Greek letters together with the eye of wisdom. On the reverse side is inscribed (institution name) and date of induction. The Alpha Sigma Nu colors are maroon and gold.

The President may add his/her own remarks here. Some Presidents choose to give a brief reflection on the Chapter’s activities and experiences throughout the year.

The invitation to membership in Alpha Sigma Nu has been based upon the journey you began on the first day you matriculated at _____. This ceremony celebrates your dedication to Alpha Sigma Nu’s values: scholarship, loyalty, and service. Keep in mind that, as this commitment determined your selection, so shall it justify membership in the future. The first standard is Scholarship, to be explained by the Vice-President of our Chapter, (name).

Descriptions of the Alpha Sigma Nu tenets by the Officers

Scholarship

Scholarship is the most important qualification for membership in Alpha Sigma Nu, as this tenet reflects the primary purpose of higher education. True scholarship, however, runs deeper than a high grade point average or the mastery of information and specialized knowledge.

Alpha Sigma Nu recognizes those persons as scholars who possess a depth of comprehension and a breadth of knowledge. Alpha Sigma Nu honors those students who have a passion for knowledge, the world of ideas, and critical analysis. The true scholar realizes that education and knowledge are lifelong pursuits, but never loses contact with the world of reality beyond the library or the classroom. Through a balanced integration of experiences, the scholar advances in both knowledge and wisdom. Humility is a mark of true scholars who continue to develop their intellectual gifts with the awareness that they pursue a standard set by God, who alone is wise.

(The President then calls on the assigned student chapter executive board member to explain the criterion of Loyalty.)

Loyalty

The search for wisdom is also a search for truth. The vision of Saint Ignatius Loyola is that the purpose of Jesuit education is to lead students to the knowledge and love of God, our Creator and Lord. Thus, membership in Alpha Sigma Nu is a lifelong vocation, not merely a scholastic honor. You, as Jesuit-educated men and women, are called to make and live out a lifelong personal commitment to the moral and social values of the Gospel.

Inspired by the vision and values of The Society of Jesus and the teachings of its Superiors General, you, as new members of Alpha Sigma Nu, are invited to further develop a depth of thought and imagination in the Ignatian tradition that will transform your minds and hearts. You will become collaborators with the Society of Jesus in the service of faith and the promotion of justice, with a special care for the marginalized and the poor.

To be loyal to these ideals means developing a full engagement with the real with a deep sense of decency and responsibility to truth and justice. It will always entail personal integrity as well as an abiding effort to advance the good of society and the well-being of all.

(The President then calls on the assigned student chapter executive board member to explain the criterion of Service.)

Service

The third of the standards, which were the basis for your selection, is Service. St. Ignatius has said that love is shown in deeds, not merely in words, and so service to others is an integral part of the philosophy of Jesuit education and thus of Alpha Sigma Nu. Knowledge should not exist in a vacuum; it should be used to build up and ennoble the world in which we live. This is why a distinguished academic record is not sufficient to warrant admission to Alpha Sigma Nu. There must be a proven dimension of willing and generous service to others. This is demonstrated by giving freely of time and talent to the academic community as well as to the larger community. Alpha Sigma Nu expects its members to translate ideals into actions as lifelong leaders and contributors to the building of a just and decent world.

President's Address

These three standards -- Scholarship, Loyalty, and Service -- are the core of Alpha Sigma Nu, but they are only powerful when translated into action.

Each of you is working toward this goal in your own unique way, both in and out of the classroom, both on and off campus.

The President may add his/her own remarks here. Some Presidents choose to give specific examples of student achievement and involvement.

Your ongoing commitment to the ideals of Alpha Sigma Nu may evolve as your situations become increasingly diverse. Together, you are a strong community of leaders devoted to scholarship, loyalty, and service. While membership spans state and country borders, what brings the Society together is its distinct Jesuit identity, and each member's continuous striving toward the magis: a desire to reach further, dig deeper, and go beyond what is expected.

New inductees join the community of Alpha Sigma Nu members who commit their imagination and energy to address the needs and concerns of the world around them.

Introduction of the Candidates and Conferral of Membership

The President directs the Secretary to introduce the candidates. This can be done by calling their names as they enter the hall or by asking them to stand as their name is called if they are already present and seated.

Individual introductions may also be done at the presentation of certificates and pins. If candidates are not present, their names could be read after all present are introduced.

Alpha Sigma Nu Pledge

As a member of Alpha Sigma Nu,
I promise to do everything in my power to carry out the ideals of Scholarship,
Loyalty and Service.

I promise to be committed to intellectual integrity and the pursuit of wisdom.

I promise to be loyal to the moral, social,
and religious ideals of my education.

I promise to be genuinely committed to the well-being of others and active in serving them.

I will do all this in light of the Jesuit concern for the greater honor and glory of God.

Acceptance of the Candidates

After the pledge has been recited, the President calls upon the institution President who formally declares the candidates members of Alpha Sigma Nu with the following statement, "As President of (name) and in the name of the Alpha Sigma Nu Board of Directors, I formally declare the candidates presented at this ceremony to be members of Alpha Sigma Nu.”

In the absence of the institution President, the Chief Academic Officer, the Chapter Adviser, or a member of the Board of Directors can make the formal declaration of membership.

Presentation of Keys and Certificates

The President now requests the members to approach the President of the institution to receive their certificates and keys in the order agreed upon for the rite. Names should be clearly announced.

Conferral of Honorary Memberships

Honorary members may be introduced before or after the presentation of keys and certificates to student members. Honorary members stand while a designated student reads a citation. To avoid awkwardness, decide beforehand if the person(s) honored will come to the dais or stand at their place. At some schools, an honorary member is chosen to be the guest speaker.

Remarks by the Institution President, Chapter Adviser or Guest Speaker

After the presentation of the keys and certificates, the President calls upon the President of the institution, the Chapter Adviser, or the guest speaker for appropriate remarks or a formal address.

Introduction of Board of Directors members or Alumni representative

The Board of Directors member may be simply introduced, or may speak depending on the program. The Alumni Club representative welcomes the new members to Alpha Sigma Nu:

- ♦ Reminding inductees that they join an alumni group of almost 100,000 life-long members
- ♦ This is a remarkable network the inductees may now access by using the Alpha Sigma Nu Online Member Directory
- ♦ The Directory can be found at www.alphasigmanu.org.

Concluding the Ceremony

The program which follows will vary by Chapter. Announcements by the President will be made in the light of events planned to follow the Induction Ceremony. The President may instruct officers, student members, alumni and faculty to form a reception line. Thereupon the new members, in the order of the Secretary’s list, greet the President of the school, the Chapter Adviser, Chapter members, and honored guests to introduce themselves and to receive congratulations.
